

Twenty-Sixth Amateur Golf Championship of the United States

September 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 1922, The Country Club, Brookline, Mass.

The competition for the Amateur Golf Championship of the United States, open to all golfers whose names appear on the Official 1922 Rating List* of the United States Golf Association, and to those foreigners visiting this country who may be invited by the Executive Committee of the Association, will be played on the course of the Country Club, Brookline, Mass., beginning Saturday, September 2, when the Havemeyer Cup and four medals will be competed for under the rules of the United States Golf Association. The winner of the competition shall be the Champion Amateur Golfer for the year, and the cup shall be held for that year by the club from which the winner shall have entered.

The winner shall receive a gold medal; the runner-up shall receive a silver medal; the other semi-finalists shall receive bronze medals.

The player making the lowest score in the qualifying round, Monday, September 4, (36 holes), shall receive a special prize.

The conditions of the play for the Amateur Championship shall be as follows:

SATURDAY.—Preliminary qualifying round. Eighteen holes to be played by each contestant; the best 64 scores and ties to continue Monday in a 36-hole medal round. These scores not to count in Monday's qualifying round.

MONDAY, 9:00 a. m.—Thirty-six holes to be played by each contestant; the 32 players having the best scores for the 2 medal play rounds (36 holes) to qualify for the Championship.

TUESDAY, 9:00 a. m.—Thirty-six hole match play rounds.

WEDNESDAY, 9:30 a. m.—Thirty-six hole match play rounds.

THURSDAY, 10:00 a. m.—Thirty-six hole match play rounds.

FRIDAY, 10:00 a. m.—Thirty-six hole match play rounds. (Semi-final.)

SATURDAY, 10:30 a. m.—Thirty-six hole final match play round.

In the event of a tie or ties for the 32d place on Monday, the contestants so tied shall continue to play until one of them has gained a lead by strokes at any hole.

In the event of a halved match, the players shall continue to play until one of them shall have won a hole, which shall determine the winner of the match.

All entries are subject to the approval of the Executive Committee of the United States Golf Association, and any entry may be rejected by the Committee. All disputes shall be settled by the Executive Committee of the Association, whose decision shall be final.

Any player who fails to appear at the tee within fifteen minutes of the time he is called to play by the Committee shall be disqualified unless reasons satisfactory to the officials in charge of the tournament be given.

Any person paying his entrance money shall be considered thereby to have submitted himself to the rules of the Association both as to restrictions enjoined and penalties imposed. On these conditions alone he is entitled to enjoy all the privileges and advantages of the Association Competition.

All score cards in the Medal Play Round must be kept in strict accordance with "Rule 5, Special Rules for Stroke Competitions." Competitors failing to comply with the requirements of this rule will be disqualified.

The privileges of the clubhouse and grounds are extended to all competitors in the Championship for one week previous to the tournament.

The pairing, starting time, and course on which first round of 18 holes is to be played by each pair in the qualifying round will be announced through the press.

* The Eligibility List of the United States Golf Association is compiled from the tournament records and handicap lists of the various sectional golf associations throughout the United States. Players whose names are in the official list are entitled to compete in the Amateur Championship of this Association. If any player whose name does not appear on the official Eligibility List desires to be included, he may submit through the secretary of the sectional association governing his district his tournament record for the past three years together with such other evidences of qualification as he may possess.

ELIGIBILITY LIST COMMITTEE, J. D. STANDISH, JR., CHAIRMAN,
414 Ford Bldg., Detroit, Mich.

Competitors shall enter for the Championship through the secretaries of their respective clubs. An entrance fee of $5.00 must accompany such entry and must be received by Mr. T. J. McMahon, 55 John St., New York, N. Y., not later than Saturday, August 19, 1922. Draw checks to the order of the United States Golf Association.

CORNELIUS S. LEE,
Secretary, U. S. Golf Association.
